P1 ① Everybody loves a fat pay rise. ② Yet pleasure at your own can vanish if you learn that a colleague has been given a bigger one. ③ Indeed, if he has a reputation for slacking, you might even be outraged. ④ Such behavior is regarded as " all too human ", with the underlying assumption that other animals would not be capable of this finely developed sense of grievance. ⑤ But a study by Sarah Brosnan and Frans de Waal of Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia, which has just been published in Nature, suggests that it is all too monkey, as well.

①人人都喜欢丰厚的加薪。②然而，一旦得知某位同事加得比你还多，你自己的那份喜悦就可能烟消云散。③实际上，如果这位同事素来以偷懒著称，你甚至可能会怒不可遏。④这种反应被视为“人之常情”，其隐含的假设是：其他动物不可能具备这种如此发达的不平之感。⑤然而，佐治亚州亚特兰大市埃默里大学的莎拉·布罗斯南和弗兰斯·德瓦尔刚刚发表在《自然》杂志上的一项研究却表明，这种情绪同样也“猴”之常情。

P2 ① The researchers studied the behavior of female brown capuchin monkeys. ② They look cute. ③ They are good-natured, co-operative creatures, and they share their food readily. ④ Above all, like their female human counterparts, they tend to pay much closer attention to the value of " goods and services " than males.

①研究人员研究了雌性棕色卷尾猴的行为。②它们看起来惹人喜爱。③它们性情温和，喜欢合作，也乐于分享食物。④尤其值得注意的是，与人类中的女性类似，雌性卷尾猴比雄性更看重“商品与服务”的价值。

P3 ① Such characteristics make them perfect candidates for Dr. Brosnan's and Dr. de Waal's study. ② The researchers spent two years teaching their monkeys to exchange tokens for food. ③ Normally, the monkeys were happy enough to exchange pieces of rock for slices of cucumber. ④ However, when two monkeys were placed in separate but adjoining chambers, so that each could observe what the other was getting in return for its rock, their behavior became markedly different.

①这些特点使它们成为布罗斯南博士和德瓦尔博士研究对象的绝佳人选。②研究人员花了两年时间训练这些猴子用代币换取食物。③通常情况下，这些猴子很乐意用石块换取黄瓜片。④然而，一旦把两只猴子分别放进相邻的两个笼子里，让它们能看到对方用石块换到了什么，它们的表现就明显不同了。

P4 ① In the world of capuchins, grapes are luxury goods (and much preferable to cucumbers). ② So when one monkey was handed a grape in exchange for her token, the second was reluctant to hand hers over for a mere piece of cucumber. ③ And if one received a grape without having to provide her token in exchange at all, the other either tossed her own token at the researcher or out of the chamber, or refused to accept the slice of cucumber. ④ Indeed, the mere presence of a grape in the other chamber (without an actual monkey to eat it) was enough to induce resentment in a female capuchin.

P5 ① The researchers suggest that capuchin monkeys, like humans, are guided by social emotions. ② In the wild, they are a co-operative, group-living species. ③ Such co-operation is likely to be stable only when each animal feels it is not being cheated. ④ Feelings of righteous indignation, it seems, are not the preserve of people alone. ⑤ Refusing a lesser reward completely makes these feelings abundantly clear to other members of the group. ⑥ However, whether such a sense of fairness evolved independently in capuchins and humans, or whether it stems from the common ancestor that the species had 35 million years ago, is, as yet, an unanswered question.
